BRYAN ENTERTAINED.

Special Dinner at Clegg's Last Night Given by Solicitor Brooks.

A crowd estimated at three to four thousand greeted Hon. W. J. Bryan at the depot last night upon his arrival from Chapel Hill, composed of all classes and colors of people. Many ladies were in the throng. Mr. Bryan appeared on the rear platform and was briefly introduced by Solicitor A. L. Brooks. The distinguished silver leader then spoke about fifteen minutes, briefly defining the principles of the democratic organization as he sees them.

After the speaking Mr. Bryan and party were entertained at dinner given by Solicitor Brooks at Hotel Clegg, complimentary to the candidate for the democratic nomination for president. Mr. Clegg sustained his well-earned reputation as a caterer on this occasion and the elegant spread was the subject of much praise from those who composed the distinguished party.

After dinner Mr. Bryan left immediately for Columbia, S. C., where he addressed the legislature today.

Of course very great things cannot be expected in a short speech like that especially from a man who is speaking several times a day. He is naturally tired of speaking, and last night Mr. Bryan's voice showed signs of decided weariness. With all his much-talked-of oratorical powers his speech last night did not in a single sentence surpass the eloquent introduction given him by our townsman and brilliant young solicitor, Aubrey L. Brooks.

Matthews Goes to Charlotte.

Some time ago it was announced that J. T. Matthews, the genial hotel clerk, so well liked in Greensboro and by the travelling public, would return here on the reopening of the Benbow and take his old position. It was welcome news to his friends here. A phone message from Winston this morning says that Mr. Matthews has accepted a position with the Central Hotel at Charlotte. It is understood that this change was decided upon because of the refusal of the proprietor of the Benbow, Mr. Cobb, to sign the contract desired by Mr. Matthews.

Brilliant Marriage Last Night in High Point

CEREMONY AT THE M. E. CHURCH

Select Orchestra Sings the Bridal Chorus From Lohengrin—Most Popular Young Couple.

Correspondence Telegram

High Point, Feb. 15.—A brilliant and notable wedding was solemnized at the M. E. church last evening at six o'clock, the contracting parties being Mr. W. J. Armfield, Jr., and Miss Sallie Millis. Rev. J. R. Spriggs and Prof. Geo. H. Crowell officiated. A few minutes before six o'clock a select orchestra sang the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, after which the bride and groom moved down the aisle, amid the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's ever favorite wedding march, played by Miss Laura Woolen, of Randleman.

The guests, Edwin Millis (a brother of the bride) and Jodie Cox, took their places. Misses Helen Snow and Berta Ragan were flower girls. Next followed the attendants—Carl S. Morris and Miss Lucille Armfield, sister of the groom; W. C. Jones and Miss Agnes Foy, of Newbern; J. O. Ragdale, of Madison, and Miss Pearl Pusey; H. A. Millis (eldest brother of the bride) and Miss Alice Walker, of Asheboro. Following them came Master James Poy, of Raleigh, who carried the ring. The maid of honor, Miss May Howard, daughter of Judge Howard, of Tarboro, came in alone, preceding the bride, who entered with her father, Mr. J. Henry Millis. The groom and best man, Mr. E. M. Armfield, cashier of the National Bank of High Point, met the bride at the altar, where the lovers' hands were bound together in the beautiful service of the M. E. church.

The bride wore a superb robe of white satin, trimmed with real lace; across the front of the skirt was a foot trimming of frills of soft tulle, and the bodice and yoke of sheer tulle. A tulle veil, caught up on either side with ribbons and silverettes, completed her elegant toilet. She wore a handsome brooch of diamonds, a gift of the groom, and carried a lovely bouquet of bride roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Armfield left on the southbound vestibule to spend part of their honeymoon with relatives and friends in Nashville, Tenn., and other points.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. J. H. Millis and is a lovely and attractive young lady.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armfield, of this place, and is a young man of good qualities.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS.

High Point, Feb. 14.—A rather interesting trial took place in the mayor's office last night. The particulars of the case are as follows:

A day or so ago, while on his rounds, Dr. Schenck, of Greensboro, one of the physicians employed to do compulsory vaccination, came to the home of Mr. Joe Blair, in the western part of the city. In answer to Dr. Schenck's question, "Have you been vaccinated?" Mr. Blair replied:

"No." But later he told him that he was willing to be vaccinated.

Dr. Schenck then asked him to pull off his coat and roll up his sleeve, which Mr. Blair refused to do, telling Dr. Schenck that if he wanted to vaccinate him he would have to do so in the next few days and that he would be compelled to carry out the law. The fine imposed was $5. The defendant appealed to the superior court. It was a very interesting case, as well as out of the usual, trial and a crowded house was present.

From day to day the "compulsory vaccination" get it between the eyes. At a certain place the other day an old lady came to the door with a bowl-knife in her hand to greet the doctor. After a few words the physician and his body-guard were seen to jump the fence and head for more agreeable quarters in double-quick time. We don't blame them—it is dangerous to talk to a woman when she is in bad humor!

EMBEZZLEMENT OR DRINKING.

DR. PEARSON SAYS THERE IS A SKELETON IN THE CLOSET.

He Does Not Defend the Bible, But Merely Shows Up Certain Excuses.

Dr. Pearson's Sermon in Charlotte Yesterday.

"I hear some one say 'I don't believe the Bible, and that is the reason I do not become a Christian.' Well, I do believe the Bible, not that I understand it all, but because I have tried it and found it true to the p omises which we find laid down in it. I have loved and believed the Bible since I was a little child, and thank God that I have. I thank God, too, I am one evangelist who was never a 'gut-ripper.' I gave my heart to God when I was a little child, and became a Christian, and have been one ever since. I have tried the Bible. I drank it in with my mother's milk, and have been nourished by it all my life. It helped me to live as a child; it helped me to be a better man; a better husband. I believe the Bible and I would lay my head on the block and die if I severed from my body before I would give it up. I love it with all my soul, and I believe it with all my heart. I have tried it and know it is true by experience. If every man, woman and child should read it aside I would still cling to it. Now I am not here to defend the Bible, but to get at the bottom of your excuse for not believing it. The United States has an ambassador at the court of St. James, but I am not here to defend the United States, but to represent her interests. Her army and navy will defend her when it becomes necessary. I am here to tell you what the Bible says and to prove to you how little is the excuse you present for not being a Christian when you say it is because you do not believe the Bible. If a doctor is to treat a man for cancer he might just as well run his lance to the root of the sore at once. I want to do this regarding this excuse to-night. As I have said, I am not here to defend the Bible. I would not compliment your infidelity by defending it. Why don't you believe the Bible? It is because you claim to have more brains than any one else? No, and if you did, no one would believe you. It is because you claim to be nobler than any one else? No. It is because you find it wanting? No. This excuse of not believing the Bible being the cause of some not accepting Christ is especially prevalent among young men. Why don't you believe the Bible? Because your heart is not right, because your heart is wicked and you are living in sin and you know the Bible will tell you of it. (John 3:19) 'Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil,' and that is what is in the matter with this little infidelity of Charlotte to-day. And let me say right here that I have yet to meet the first infidel who has not some skeleton in his closet? Are you an infidel? If so, what is the skeleton in your closet? Is it embezzlement? Is it night drinking? Is it a double life? There is a skeleton in every kind of infidelity as an infidel.

CORPORATION COM. REPORT

SOME VALUABLE STATISTICS ARE GIVEN.

Also Digests of Complaints and Decisions in Various Suits Which Have Been Tried.

News and Observer.

The first annual report of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, being the report for the year ending December 31st, 1899, has just been issued. Besides the usual features of the report of the railroad commission it embraces the data of the state and private banks and building and loan associations all of which were put under its jurisdiction by the last legislature. The report is compiled with a accuracy, excellence and system that have marked the previous reports of the railroad commission as prepared by Mr. H. C. Brown, its clerk, and has been some new and valuable features.

The report begins with the letter of transmission to the governor, then follows the act establishing the commission, and all acts amending or relating thereto, statistics as to building and loan associations; the rules of practice before the commission; the relation of railroad companies to tariffs; reports of the complaints and decisions in the intricate litigation in which the commission has been involved during the year. And the usual data, telephones, telegraph and steamboat properties. The report of the tax rate case is especially valuable, containing, as it does, compilation of a vast amount of information relating to the properties involved which had not been previously aggregated and printed together. It is worth while to recall that the digest of affidavits in this case showed 87 counties represented by a total of 2,923 affidavits given by 1,283 tax assessors, 266 equities, 337 county officers, 87 money lenders and 987 private citizens.

SOME STATISTICS.

In its letter of transmittal the commission says:

"The railroad mileage was increased during the year 108.25 miles; gross earnings from operation were $13,253,627.43; net earnings were $5,667,127; the debt of all the railroads in the State is $82,123,467.15; interest paid on the funded debt for the fiscal year were $953,467.93; number of employees in 1899 were 9,120—an increase of 121 over the number of last year.

Two passengers were killed and 65 injured; 68 trespassers were killed and 99 injured; 26 persons were killed and 648 injured; two persons not trespassers were killed and 11 injured—total killed 98, injured 823. Number of State banks 80 with a capital stock of $2,449,811.01 deposits $9,152,192.28; undivided surplus $843,479.29. There are 94 building and loan associations in the state."

STREET RAILWAYS.

The reports of the various lines of street or electric railways of the state show that there are, apart from Washington which does not give its mileage in operation 305 miles of such roads. The number of passengers transported for the year were 2,793,742. The total receipts were $143,058. Charlotte's net income of $10,043.91 from 45 miles of tracks was the largest. The number of passengers carried on the several roads were as follows: Asheville, 234,518; Asheville, 681,252; Charlotte, 615,626; Pineh rae, 7,338; Raleigh, 327,835; Washington, 725,877; Winston, 331,106.

MURDERED AN INFANT.

Colored Child Found in A Well in Lumber District.

This morning a colored man, who works for one of the lumber mills south of the railroad, found a suspicious looking budget in an old, unused well. He saw a patch of blood on some of the timbers. An investigation showed the budget to contain a colored male child. It was wrapped in a cloth and put into a sack. The sack also contained a brick which was intended to carry the body to the bottom, but it was a bungling job and the parcel lodged on a cross beam of the timbers in the well.

Dr. J. P. Turner, coroner, was notified and summoned a jury who held an inquest over the body of the child at old mayor's office, over the market, this afternoon. The physician's autopsy revealed the fact that the child had been smothered to death. A cloth was bound securely over its mouth. It had been dead, the doctor thinks, forty-eight hours or more.

It is said the night watchman at the mill nearby saw a man acting suspiciously late in the night. Beyond this there is no clue for the police to begin a search for the heartless wretch or wretches who murdered the child.

TO FORCE BOERS TO FIGHT

Roberts Has Planned to Take an Advantage

BRITISH FEEL MORE CONFIDENT

Trusting to the Strong Hands of Lord Roberts and General Kitchener for a Victory.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 15.—A Tribune London special says: "The success of General Roberts' initial move is undoubtedly due largely to the admirable working of the cavalry under General French, who will now probably endeavor to get round to the rear of M-gerefontein position. The actual situation is serious for the Boers and it is quite certain they will have to leave the trenches they have held so long and successfully against Methuen. There may be, however, no general action for a few days."

ROBERTS' PLAN

London, Feb. 15. General Roberts' plan, as published in the moral g papers, gives great satisfaction. No further news of the British advance in the Free State has been received, but confidence prevails that the strong hands of Roberts and Kitchener will shape matters towards a decisive victory. Roberts has his own line strongly guarded and will be able to force the Boers to fight under very unfavorable conditions or abandon their heavy guns and stores.

JUDGE EWART'S PERIL.

The Windy Statesman Ready to Talk Forever.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Although the indications are that the committee on the judiciary will report the nomination of Judge Ewart adversely, thus following the advice of its sub-committee, the judge and his friends, led by Senator Fritchard, remain calm and confident. The enemies of Judge Ewart have been more persistent than usual this session of the senate, and some new charges have been brought one of them involving the reapportionment of his son as clerk of the court, which is construed as an act of corruption, and is specifically forbidden.

The sub-committee which decided against Judge Ewart this year consists of only two members, Senator Simon, the new senator from Washington state and Senator Pettus, of Alabama, and the report is unanimously against his confirmation. Whether the full committee, will sustain the report of the sub-committee is, as yet, still a matter of speculation, but the opinion is strong that they will.

Senator Butler is much pleased with the report. Just at present the senator is not in Washington, having gone to Raleigh to attend the Bryan meeting there. He is much pleased at the prospect of winning the fight against Ewart in the committee, and says the senate will never confirm him. If the report should turn out to be a favorable one it is said that Butler will make a strong fight in the senate, exposing Judge Ewart's career, perhaps, in open session. He is said to be willing to talk during the whole session, if it will avail to defeat Ewart's confirmation. As stated the other day the success of a filibustering program would depend largely upon the support Butler receives from other senators.

Col. E. A. Webster, a member of the national republican committee from South Carolina, and internal revenue collector at Columbia, is in Washington on business connected with the department. He was seen the other day and says that the south and particularly North and South Carolina are in a prosperous condition. The state of South Carolina, he says, is sending large quantities of cheap cotton goods to China, and that the mills are working day and night.

Col. Webster says that there is a large expansion sentiment in the south and also a big gold sentiment. The gold sentiment is particularly strong, he says, around Charleston, but that under the election laws of the state there is no doubt but Col. Bryan will carry South Carolina by the usual big majority. Col. Webster says that he is somewhat familiar with North Carolina sentiment, and he hopes for the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment there.

Mr. A. C. Kaufman, of Charleston, S. C. is in the city in the interest of the convention of the national educational association which is to meet at Charleston next June. The concessions of the railways has been very liberal, and Mr. Kaufman hopes for a large attendance at the convention. He says that a large delegation from Washington city will go south next summer, including a large number of public school teachers. Mr. Kaufman will attend the meeting of superintendents of schools to be held at Chicago, and he says that there will be a large attendance from all sections of the country at this meeting.

Representative Thomas, of North Carolina, has presented to the house a petition signed by a number of druggists of Fayetteville, North Carolina, asking for the repeal of the stamp tax on proprietary medicines, etc. The petition has been referred to the committee on ways and means.

MR. MEBANE AN EXPONENT OF A PRINCIPLE.

There was copied into this paper yesterday, from the Charlotte Observer, an article concerning the suggestion that the democratic party nominate Mr. C. H. Mebane, the present incumbent, elected by the fusionists, as its candidate for the office of superintendent of public instruction. The article referred to states what is well known as regards Mr. Mebane's administration of his office in a non-partisan manner, his evident desire to lift the office above the mire of political spoils, his refusal to be an instrument in the hands of the politicians who elected him, as evidenced by his intention of voting for the amendment, and the fact that he has regarded the office, not as a sinecure, but a position calling for the most arduous and continuous effort for the uplifting of the people of the State. For some time we have been in favor of the nomination of Mr. Mebane by the democratic party.

So far as Mr. Mebane is individually concerned we don't care a rap. He is a good man, but there are others as good. We have no sympathy with the statement that no man could be found in the democratic party who would fill the office so well as he. It is the principle and precedent involved that we should like to see endorsed. Mr. Mebane has risen above the demands of partisanship; he has regarded all questions in the light of their effect on the efficiency of the school work; he has shown independence in an office where independence is needed. Now the question is, can the democratic party refuse to nominate Mr. Mebane, and thus virtually repudiate his course? If it does, the office will again drop back into its old place as a sinecure for the reward of the faithful. It is not a question of endorsing Mr. Mebane personally half so much as it is one of endorsing a course, that the democratic party is called on to do. Let it rise to the occasion.

MACADAM.

We should not presume to do more than suggest to the people of Guilford county, and with this view we call their attention to the address now being circulated in the county by the Good Roads Club, concerning an issue of $200,000 of bonds for the purpose of road macadamizing. This matter demands the serious thought of any progressive people. Road improvement is no less an indication of progress than the building of railroads and the setting up of industrial enterprises. It is even farther reaching, as the committee so well points out, touching as it does so effectively the social and educational life of the rural district. This matter is something to think on, and to think hard on.

Col. Bryan's joke: "It doesn't make any difference who is president next time."

Our friends, the British, deserve congratulation in having put foot on the enemy's territory in so short a time.

The engineer who kept up his puffing and clanging when Mr. Bryan was waiting to speak at the depot was evidently a gold-bug conspirator.

We hope our friend, Col. Jno. R. Webster, of the Raleigh Weekly, will allow us to felicitate him on the fact that he has found somebody who can score trusts to his liking.

The announcement by Governor Roosevelt that he could not under any circumstances accept the nomination for the vice-presidency is only proof of his usual disinclination to play second fiddle in anything.

Our Washington special refers to the fact that Colonel Webster, of South Carolina hopes for the defeat of the proposed amendment in North Carolina. Really, we would advise the hopeful Colonel not to lose any nocturnal repose on that account.

The anti-trust convention sitting in Chicago Tuesday should be commended for its conservatism shown in the adoption of Mr. Alge's resolution that the railroads should be paid for their property when it is taken charge of by the government.

The Washington Post said a day or two ago that all the powers except France had expressed acquiescence in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, but that she would likely interpose objections. It is gratifying at least to learn that France has at last done something to be commended.

NOW INSIDE BOER FRONTIER

FOR THE FIRST TIME GREAT BRITAIN IN ON THE ENEMY'S SOIL.

And Now the Relief of Kimberley is in Sight.

London, Feb. 15, 4:20 a. m.—The British army, for the first time since the war began, is inside the Boer frontier. Lord Roberts, with at least 40,000 infantry, 7,000 cavalry and 150 guns, has turned the Magersfontein lines, before which the British forces have been encamped for ten weeks, and with half of his corps is already operating on Free State territory. A large tactical advantage has been gained. The relief of Kimberley is within measurable reach. The dispatches of Lord Roberts sketch three days' work. The forward movement began on Sunday, when Colonel Hanny set out with a brigade of mounted infantry for Ramah on the Riet, eight miles from Jacobsdal, one of the Boer supply bases. On Monday General French, with the cavalry division, succeeded in crossing the Riet river, at Dekil's drift, south of Jacobsdal, and 18 miles east of Honey Nest kloof. He struck the Boers, who were in the main line of communication with Bloemfontein, and 20,000 infantry, with 72 guns, are being pushed up to support him there. Lord Roberts' dispatch, wired from inside the Free State, and on the Riet river, left him Wednesday morning. His advance had not been opposed by the Boers in force. Their patrols melted away as the British moved forward. The Boer army is likely to be met in a day or two, and a battle is consequently imminent. As to what forces General French has now at his disposal and as to where he proposes making a stand against the invaders, no one here connected with the war office knows anything. The date for conceptions are wholly wanting. The forces immediately at the disposal of Lord Roberts are placed at 50,000 in a general way. The incidents at Rensburg have been out of all proportion. Merely skeleton lines were maintained there, while troops were being secretly and rapidly concentrated on the Modder river. The facility with which 30,000 men have already been sent beyond the Riet terminus, shows that Lord Roberts has been fully successful in organizing his transports. He is now supposed to be down the line, sending forward more troops and getting together more transports. About five miles of ox and mule wagon trains are estimated for each division, so that Lord Roberts, who is reputed to have more skill than a circus manager in handling field transports, has immense labors in hand.

The British Fall Back to Rensburg. Rensburg, Tuesday, Feb. 13.—Before dawn yesterday, the enemy opened an attack upon Slingsfontein, assaulting with musketry the hills on the north-east, held by three companies of the Worcesters, under Captain Hovel. The artillery attack began at sunrise. The Boers approached in great numbers, estimated at 7 to one. The British, under good cover, sustained the attack throughout the day. Meanwhile, two big guns on the west opened upon the British at day-light and fired for half an hour, when a British howitzer silenced them with Lydite, the British artillery firing with precision. The shelling continued all day, and last evening the soldiers brought up a forty-pounder in order to bombard the camp from a hill to the north. The attempt was plainly visible, as the gun could be seen being drawn by 18 oxen. With the Boers surrounding the British in overwhelming numbers and having artillery, it then became evident that it would be impossible to retain Slingsfontein which the British evacuated under cover of the darkness, falling back upon Rensburg. The British batteries were lighter than might have been expected.

Brother Abner With us. Raleigh Post. Mr. Abner McKinley, brother of President McKinley, accompanied by his wife and daughter and their guests passed through Raleigh yesterday en route to Southern Pines. Mr. McKinley and party will spend Sunday in Raleigh. They will be guests. The President's brother occupies the car of Vice-President St. John of the Seaboard Air Line, which was used by Col. William J. Bryan on his trip to this city. Two private cars are at the disposal of the McKinley party, who are accompanied on the trip by Mr. L. S. Allen, the general manager agent of the Seaboard. The party will also visit Columbia, S. C., and Atlanta. This is Mr. McKinley's first visit south of Mason and Dixon's line, and he is particularly anxious to investigate for himself southern industrial conditions before returning to New York. The leading citizens of the places Mr. McKinley, who is making this tour of observation under the guidance of the Seaboard Air Line officials, is scheduled to visit will extend him a most cordial reception and see that he is afforded every opportunity to acquaint himself with the resources and advantages of the sections he passes through.

Too Much Vaccinated. Winston-Salem Special to Charlotte Observer. Dr. Newton, of Richmond, was tried before a magistrate this afternoon on the charge of vaccinating a colored girl after she resisted and claimed she had been vaccinated. The girl exhibited certificates to the court showing she had been vaccinated twice. The evidence was not damaging and those who attended the trial were surprised when the court imposed a fine of $1 and cost upon the physician. An appeal was taken at once to the criminal court.

JUST SEEN IN TIME.

Slight Skin Eruptions are a Warning of Something More Serious to Come. The Only Safe Way is to Flood the System with Johnston's Sarsaparilla. The Most Powerful Blood Purifier Known.

Nature, in her efforts to correct mistakes, which mistakes have come from careless living, or it may be from ancestral, shoots out pimples, blotches and other imperfections on the skin, as a warning that more serious troubles (perhaps tumors, cancers, erysipelas or pulmonary diseases) are certain to follow if you neglect to heed the warning and correct the mistakes.

Many a lingering, painful disease and many a early death has been avoided simply because these notes of warning have been heeded and the blood kept pure by a right use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Miss Abbie J. Kande, of Marshall, Mich., writes: "I was cured of a bad humor after suffering with it for five years. The doctors and my friends said it was salt rheum. It came out on my head, neck and ears, and then on my whole body. I was perfectly raw with it. What I did, I tried every medicine that was advertised to cure it. I spent money enough to buy a house. I heard JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA highly praised. I tried a bottle of it. I began to improve right away, and when I had finished the third bottle I was completely cured. I have never had a touch of it since. I never got any thing to do me the least good till I tried JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. I would heartily advise all who are suffering from humors or skin disease of any kind to try it at once. I had also a good deal of stomach trouble, and was run down and miserable, but JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA made me all right."

The blood is your life and if you keep it pure and strong you can positively resist disease or face contagion fearlessly. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA never fails. It is for sale by all druggists, in full quart bottles at only one dollar each.

HAND ON THE THROTTLE.

John Fetzner, Engineer, Dies at His Post of Duty.
While Bryan was speaking at the depot last night train No. 7, from Danville, came in and stopped below the depot on account of the tracks being covered with people. The engineer of that train was John B. Fetzner, one of the most reliable and trusted employees of the Southern Railway, a stout, healthy looking man aged about 35 years. When the crowd dispersed he pulled his train up to the station and stopped. His trainman heard a groan and turning to Mr. Fetzner saw him start to fall and caught him. Almost in an instant he was dead with one hand on the throttle and the other on the reverse bar.
Strong yet tender hands removed his body from the cab, a relief man was called and the ponderous engine rolled on its journey.
The body of the dead engineer was turned over to Undertaker Forbis and prepared for burial. The remains are now at the home of Mr. Jos. M. Reece, on Greene street, who is a friend of the family, awaiting the arrival of relatives. Mr. Fetzner's father, Jos. W. Fetzner, a former resident of Greensboro, and well known here, arrived at noon today from Abbeville, S. C. A brother of the deceased, Jesse Fetzner, of Reidsville, is also here, and the arrival of two other brothers is expected tonight. One of them is Frank Fetzner, an engineer whose run is from Abbeville, S. C. to Monroe, the other "Tobe" Fetzner, also an engineer, whose run is out of Atlanta.
The mother of the deceased was a sister of our townsman Mr. L. C. Howlett, and has been dead several years. She lies buried in Greene Hill cemetery, and beside her the body of her son will be placed tomorrow.
Deceased was a member of the Masons, Elks and Red Men, besides the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He was born and raised in Greensboro and all who knew him were his friends. He was ever faithful to his duty, died at his post and has made his last trip, entering the "round house" of eternity.

THE FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

The Inspector Makes a Statement as to its Condition.

Much has recently been said about the fire alarm system in this city and its alleged inefficiency. Below we publish a statement from J. Henry Phipps, chief of the fire department, and from Mr. A. T. Tinker, inspector of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Co. To the citizens of Greensboro:
I have had the Gamewell Fire Alarm representative to examine the entire system of fire alarm and the following is what he has to say.
Respectfully,
J. Henry Phipps,
Chief of Greensboro Fire Department.
To whom it may concern:
This is to certify that I have this day as a representative of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Co. made a careful and thorough inspection of the Greensboro fire alarm system and with one exception have found the same to be in first class condition. This exception, however, which related to the tower bell striking machine, was of a minor character, easily remedied, and entirely due to the natural wear and tear to which such an exposed piece of mechanism is subjected. Since making the inspection, tests of the various pieces of apparatus have been made and their operation has been found to be perfect both from an electrical and a mechanical standpoint. As to the general condition of the entire system, it is better than the average found in other places of concern. A notable instance being that of the battery and its surroundings, the condition of which is up to standard requirements, and indicates careful and intelligent attention. Especial emphasis is placed upon this fact, as the battery power of a fire alarm system, although the prime factor in its successful operation, is the one thing most frequently neglected.
In conclusion, I have no hesitancy in stating that the condition in which I have found the fire alarm system reflects great credit upon those who have it in charge, and I can make no important suggestions as to its maintenance which would result in its material betterment.
Yours truly,
A. T. Tinker,
Rep. Gamewell Fire Alarm Tel. Co.

SCHUMANN GRAND CONCERT CO.

At the Academy of Music Last Evening.
The Schumann Grand Concert Company, under the management of Mr. J. Saunders Gordon, gave a musical performance at the Academy of Music last night. The company was greeted by a medium house, and those present were certainly given a grand musical treat.
Miss Grace Challer Caborn, the soprano soloist, has a remarkably sweet voice, and "Cupid and Psyche," sung by her, accompanied by Miss Tarrant on the piano, was received with great deal of applause; the audience was not satisfied until she had responded to an encore.
Miss Zulme Searles Bolckow, dramatic reader and elocutionist, captured the audience with a recitation, an extract from Ben Hur, "The Angel and the Shepherds," which was very prettily done.
Miss Agnes Pringle, the violinist, the star of the company, brought down the house. Her rendition of "Reverie," "Vieuxtemps, was magnificent. Though quite young, Miss Pringle has quite a reputation, and plays with skill. She has an exquisite touch, as well as a beautiful diamond medal from the Chicago College of Music.
The harpist, Miss Charlotte Tarrant, in the execution of "Echoes from a Waterfall" created quite a favorable impression.
The finale, Intermezzo, from Cavalleri Rusticana, by Miss Caborn, supported by harp, violin and piano, was decidedly the best selection on the program, and received round after round of applause.
The company will play a return engagement in this city on Friday evening at the academy, with an entire change of program, and we can assure those who did not attend last night that they will not be disappointed should they decide to take it in tomorrow night.
